

Isaac Asimovs Inferno (Caliban Trilogy)

In a Universe protected by the Three Laws of Robotics, humans are safe... When a key politician is murdered, suspicion falls on Caliban...the only robot without guilt or conscience, with no need to obey or respect humanity...a robot without the Three Laws. But the stakes go deeper than one mans life. Caliban is challenging long-held ideas of a robots place in society. Will he lead his New Law robots in a rebellion that threatens all of humanity? * Second in a powerful trilogy that examines Asimovs Three Laws of Robotics--a challenge welcomed and sanctioned by Isaac Asimov, and written with his cooperation * Roger MacBride Allen is the New York Times bestselling author of The Modular Man and The Ring of Charon * Cover art by Ralph McQuarrie, the conceptual artist for the Star Wars films * Also available: Caliban and Caliban: Utopia
