

Tubo-Peritoneal Ectopic Gestation (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Tubo-Peritoneal Ectopic Gestation This monograph gives a detailed account of an original research into the nature of a mixed variety of Ectopic Gestation, partly within the left Fallopian tube (Extra-peritoneal) and partly within the peritoneal cavity (Intra-peritoneal). Such a variety has never yet been described, and to it I propose to give the name Tubo-Peritoneal. The work of investigation has been carried out at the Laboratory of the Royal College of Physicians during the past two years. I desire to express my deepest thanks to the Laboratory officials for the generous manner in which they have supplied my many needs during the prosecution of the research, and to acknowledge especially the kindness of Dr. J. Batty Tuke, Curator, Dr. Noel Paton, Superintendent, and Dr. G. Sims Woodhead, former Superintendent of the Laboratory.
